-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 65-128 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 65, the claim specifies “a Correspondent Node” (See claim 65, lines 2-5.) It is unclear which nodes in a network qualify as a “Correspondent Node.” And, it is unclear what a “Correspondent Node” forwarding datagrams without any “awareness of the Mobile IP protocol” without utilizing label or tag switching means. Furthermore, it is unclear how a datagram can be forwarded from a node to a destination mobile IP node without being aware of the destination address, which is part of the Mobile IP protocol. The assertion that a node can forward a datagram without any awareness of the destination’s protocol seems to be a complete contradiction since some destination address corresponding to that protocol must be known in order for the datagram to ever reach its destination. Further clarification and description is respectfully requested.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed October 28, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Art Unit: 2662

Rejection Under 35 USC § 112

On page 11 of the remarks regarding claim 65, the Applicant references to a "correspondent node" as stated within the specification, particularly p. 10, lines 4-7, with reference to Fig. 1:

Correspondent nodes 4 (CN) sends IP datagrams to a mobile node at its home address in the same way it would any other destination. This scheme allows transparent interoperation between mobile nodes 3 and their correspondent nodes 4, but forces all datagrams for a mobile node 3 to be routed through its home agent 1.

The Examiner acknowledges the passage outlines a function of the correspondent node, but it does not define what a "correspondent node" is or how it differs from a typical node.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Art Unit: 2662
